IN MEMORIAM

IN LOVING MEMORY of Early Allen Franklin, who departed this life on October 22, 1969.

Although you left us two years ago.
The memories still longer on,
Of your wonderful ways and smiling face,
That time alone can never erase.

God took you to Heaven to live with him
And since that day our life has been grim,
God gives us the strength to overcome sin
So that we all may be joined together again,
It will not be a place where the Color is blue
But it will be Heaven where we can join you.

Sadly missed by wife, children, and grandchildren. 10-21-1p

Midgets Blast Devils 36-0

by Rabbitt Cawthorne

Appomattox Midgets (9 -10 years old) blast the Rustburg Devils 36-0 in a sizzler to match any other game the fired-up Midgets have had this season. Game time was Wed. night, Oct. 13.

Ernie Chenault got things going in the 1st quarter with a TD from one foot out. The run for the extra two points was no good, but Johnny Rothgeb came up in the 2nd quarter with a four yard run to up the score to 12-0 and a pass from Mike Wooten to Barry Martin was good for the extra two points.

In the 3rd quarter, a kickreturn and 55 yard run by Barry Martin put six more points on the board with a run by Walter Mosley to up the score to 30-0. Then Johnny Rothgeb ran the ball from eight yards out for the final TD with a pass from Mike Wooten to Walter Mosley to finish the day with a 36-0 victory.

Outstanding on offense were Walter Moseley, James Paisette, R. L. Harris, Barry Martin, Bill Vaughan and Tommy Moore.

T-Rebs Down Devils 37-0

T-REBS DOWN DEVELS

by Rabbitt Cawthorne

T-Rebs (11-12-13 year olds) of Appomattox met up with Rustburg Little Devils on Mon., Oct. 11, at Bragg Stadium and came up with some great playing that earned them a 37-0 mark in the bright lights!

In the 1st quarter Tommy Bryant recovered a fumble to set up the first TD with Bob Weatherly tearing down the field in a 45 yard run for that first, important six. Even though the run for the extra two was no good, there was a lot more coming.

In the 2nd quarter Gordon Ford made a 40 yard punt return and things stood at 12-0. The pass attempt failed but later; in the 2nd, Tommy Bryantran from 8 yards out for the third TD. The run failed to produce two more points, but a 20 yard pass from D. Reynolds to Bob Weatherly provided the 4th TD before half-time.

The kick by Tommy Bryant was good for two more points.

Half-time breather, and the Rebs were at it again, this time with Carter recovering a fumble to set up a TD through a 28 yard pass from Reynolds to Carter. The kick effort was no good but Reynolds again in the 3rd quarter, made the TD from one yard out with the kick no good. Final score: 37-0.

TEGRITY - EXPERIENCE

To the Voters of the 18th Senatorial District

HOWARD P. ANDERSON
Democratic Nominee

...d of the Counties of Appomattox, Buckingham, a major portion of ..., Charlotte, Halifax, Prince Edward, and the city of South Boston;

WE WANT you to vote for Howard P. Anderson for the State Senate because we consider him to be the right man at the right time for the job.

WE KNOW that he has an outstanding record of service to Virginia in his fourteen years in the House of Delegates.

WE KNOW that he has gained valuable experience in State Government which will stand us well in the Senate of Virginia.

WE KNOW of his vital interest in such important matters as highway safety, education, governmental economy, agriculture and rural affairs.

WE KNOW that he knows his way around in Richmond and can get things done for his constituents.

THESE THINGS are all important -- BUT MOST IMPORTANT to us and to others who know HOWARD ANDERSON well -- are those character traits of INTEGRITY, DEDICATION and RELIABILITY which inspire confidence and trust and convince us that he is the kind of man we want as our representative in the Senate of Virginia. Virginia needs men of Howard Anderson's caliber.

WE EARNESTLY solicit your vote and support in this campaign for the candidacy of a progressive conservative, Howard P. Anderson.
